Motivating Students
“Keeping the Light On”

An Interactive Lecture presented by

Debyii L. Sababu Thomas, Ph.D.
Department of Communication and Culture
The John H. Johnson School of communication

Sponsored by the

THE CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING, LEARNING & ASSESSMENT
Howard University
Washington, DC

Teresa Redd, Ph.D., Director

January 27, 2005
MOTIVATING STUDENTS

Lecture Outline

OBJECTIVES

OVERVIEW

PHASE I  MOTIVATION IN GENERAL: “Up Close & Personal”

- Definitions
- Theoretical Perspectives
- Factors in the Learning Environment that Affect Motivation

PHASE II  MOTIVATION IN CONTEXT: “Ain’t Nothing Like the Real Thing”

- Preparing the Foundation for Progress
- Motivating Forces: From the Inside Out
- Identifying Differences in Levels of Motivation
- Identifying Differences in Learning Styles
- Identifying Differences in Expectations
- Acknowledging what College Students Say Motivate Them

PHASE III  MOTIVATION IN MOTION: “Who Turned on the Lights?”

- A Five-fold Approach to Motivating Students
- A Five-fold Focus Model of Motivational Strategies
- Summary of Strategies

Conclusion

Questions

Responses

THANK YOU
For Your Time, Attention and Participation
Notes